- NOTES: 1. It is worthy of note that 89 of the 225 names listed clearly indicate French origin.
2. The addresses, as would be expected, are almost without exception, from large centers of population.
3. The records of the A.E.F., give the total number of women operators overseas as 223. This list is the result of careful examination of the records in the Office of the Chief Signal Officer. It contains only 225 names, and of them, one, Miss Ethel Burnham did not serve overseas.
